

SUPPORT WITH TOILET TRAINING

Toilet training can be a big milestone for both parents and children.

By the age of 3 years many children are developmentally ready to master toilet training, but each child progresses at their own pace. Here are some links to practical advice to help make the process smoother.

If you would like further support with toilet training at home please contact your Health Visitor at your local GP Surgery who will be able to offer advice and guidance.